

School Name: Euclid City Schools

Strategy	Current Policy	Strength of Current Policy			Implementation of Current Policy					Notes
		Strong	Weak	No Policy	School Wide	Most Classrooms	A Few Classrooms	In Planning	No Classrooms
These are the strategies that are working to write into policy.	Write any current policy you have for each strategy into the corresponding boxes below. Next you will score the strength and implementation of each policy.									Opportunities, Barriers, Resources Needed, Rank Policies by Priority, etc.
Provide healthy choices for snacks and celebrations; limit unhealthy choices.	Any foods and beverages marketed, promoted or offered to students on the school campus, during the school day, will meet or exceed the USDA Smart snacks and school nutrition standards.	X			X
Provide water and low fat milk; limit or eliminate sugary beverages.	Food service program shall comply with federal and state regulations in an environment that offers and promotes health and appealing food and drink choices.	X			X
Nutrition education shall be included in the health curriculum so that it provides students with knowledge, attitudes and skills to lead healthy lives.	Nutrition education is integrated into other subjects as well as Health, when appropriate, to complement the standards and benchmarks for health education.	X				X				RD on staff to begin offering mini lessons to classrooms per request.
With regard to physical activity...	Healthy lifestyle choices are promoted to District students and parents. Promote participation in physical activity outside regular school day. Planned instruction in PE class to achieve proficient level with regard to standards and benchmarks adopted by the State.	X				X
Provide opportunities for children to get physical activity every day.	The schools will promote student wellness through collaboration with community partners by providing social, noncompetitive fitness and activity programs. Fitness and physical activity programs are organized to	X				X				Community sports and activities programs has expanded greatly over the past year or so. A maximize participation in the everyday curriculum.									coordinator has been hired to spearhead this ongoing effort.

Nutrition promotion...	The sale of foods and beverages to students that do not meet the USDA dietary guidelines and the USDA Smart Snacks standards, is prohibited during the school day between midnight and 30 minutes after the close of school.	X				X
Nutrition promotion...	Create environment that reinforces development of healthy eating habits, offering healthy foods through a variety of fresh produce and whole-grain products.	X				X

Wellness policy reviewed and assessed per standards and shared with public.	Superintendent reports on the district's compliance with policy and progress towards achieving its goals, appoints wellness committee, and is responsible for informing the public, including parents, students and community members.	X						X		Assessment to be placed on district's website for public to view as needed.

This institution is an equal opportunity provider.